BRUCE A. BLAKEMAN
NASSAU COUNTY EXECUTIVE

As the County Executive of Nassau County, it is my immense pleasure to welcome residents and visitors alike to an extraordinary milestone in our rich history. This year, we not only celebrate the 125th anniversary of Nassau County but also have the distinct honor of hosting the prestigious ICC Men's T20 World Cup. These two landmark events offer a unique opportunity to showcase the vibrant culture, history, and spirit of our community.

Nassau County, established in 1899, has grown from a primarily rural area into one of the most dynamic and diverse regions in the country. Over the years, we have cultivated a strong sense of community and resilience that shines through in every neighborhood, from the serene shores of our beaches to the bustling streets of our downtown areas, with world-class shopping and top-notch restaurants. Our 125th anniversary is a testament to the generations of residents who have made Nassau County their home, contributing to its growth and prosperity.

This year, as we mark this significant anniversary, we are also thrilled to host the ICC Men's T20 World Cup, an event that reflects our county's global spirit and multicultural heritage. Cricket enthusiasts from around the world will gather here, bringing with them a festival of sportsmanship and international camaraderie. This event not only highlights the global appeal of cricket but also allows us to strengthen our ties with the international community, promoting cultural exchange and mutual respect.

To all our guests, whether you are here to enjoy the ICC Men's T20 World Cup or to explore the scenic beauty and historic sites of Nassau County, we extend a warm welcome. Let us make these celebrations a reflection of our shared values of diversity, heritage, and community.

Thank you for being part of our county's historic year. We are excited to share this moment with you and hope you enjoy the unforgettable experiences Nassau County has to offer.
